

Michael J. Fisher

Associate

mfisher@millerbarondess.com

424.653.5839

Education

J.D., Columbia Law School

B.A., cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa, University of California, Los Angeles

Admissions

California

New York

Biography

Michael is a litigator with experience in state and federal court and domestic and international arbitration. Michael has represented clients in the entertainment, finance, and pharmaceutical industries, as well as in government enforcement proceedings.

Michael received his J.D. from Columbia Law School. During law school, Michael participated in a one-year exchange program with Paris 1 Panthéon-Sorbonne University Law School and Sciences Po Law School, earning a Certificate in Global Business Law and Governance. He received a B.A. in History from UCLA, where he graduated cum laude, Phi Beta Kappa.

Prior to joining Miller Barondess, Michael was an associate in the New York office of a large, international firm in its Complex Commercial Litigation group.