Biography

Jacquelyn Crawley is a litigator admitted to practice in California. She has experience representing clients in state and federal courts in diverse matters, including antitrust, breach of contract, class action, unfair competition, privacy, and other complex commercial litigation.

A Los Angeles native, Jacquelyn earned her Bachelor's Degree, cum laude, from Tufts University. She received her Juris Doctor, magna cum laude, Order of the Coif, from Pepperdine University School of Law.

Jacquelyn was recognized by her peers in Southern California Super Lawyers Magazine as a "Rising Star" in antitrust litigation in 2018.

Before joining Miller Barondess, Jacquelyn was a litigator in the Los Angeles office of a large international law firm and served as in-house counsel at two Fortune 500 companies. During law school, she was a Judicial Extern to the Honorable George H. Wu in the Central District of California and a Teaching Assistant in Legal Research and Writing at Pepperdine University School of Law.
