

Private: Daniel R. Paluch Counsel

dpaluch@millerbarondess.com

310.552.5225

Education

J.D., University of Southern California, Gould School of Law

B.A., Columbia University

Admissions

California

Biography

Daniel Paluch has extensive experience in large, complex, litigation matters. He has litigated in state and federal courts in California, Illinois, New York, Arizona, New Mexico, Washington, New Jersey, Massachusetts, Maryland, Florida, and the District of Columbia. He focuses his practice on finance and business disputes, but also has experience in antitrust, consumer protection matters, intellectual property, and family disputes.

Daniel began his practice at a large, international law firm representing clients in complex litigation matters. He received his Juris Doctorate from the University of Southern California Gould School of Law, where he served on the staff of the Southern California Interdisciplinary Law Journal. Daniel received his B.A. in Political Science-Economics from Columbia University.

Prior to practicing law, Daniel worked as an economic forecaster for a large international brokerage firm and as a software developer for several startups in the Los Angeles area. Daniel is fluent in German.

Notable Representations

- Successfully defended a student loan trust in a class action seeking cancellation of nearly $220 million in debt obligations purchased by the trust.
- Obtained a $26.9 million judgment for a family office in a dispute involving a fraudulent scheme to use shell companies in four different countries to avoid enforcement of a loan.
- Represented several of the country's largest mortgage lenders and mortgage servicers in individual borrower and class action litigation in state and federal court.
- Represented several of the country's largest property-assessed clean energy financing providers in class actions and other disputes in state and federal court.

- Represented pharmaceutical companies in false advertising, unfair competition, and products liability cases in state and federal court.